This 1972-73 version of the North Star's story is the sixth — and the editors hope, the most informative and interesting — published by Minnesota's National Hockey League team.

Its purpose is two-fold:

1. To provide information so that members of the press, radio and television are able more easily to report the activities of the North Stars.

2. To provide that same information combined with interesting photos and photo layouts to the members of the public who purchase the North Stars' Story.

It is the sincere hope of the editors that both of these purposes have been fulfilled.

LOOKING AT 1972-73

A Difficult Step Looms Ahead

Minnesota needs to take only one more giant step to land in first place in the National Hockey League's West Division, but the difference between second place and first place is vast.

General Manager Wren Blair puts it this way:

"The only way we can improve ourselves in the standings is to finish first. But it's easier to say it than do it."

Minnesota comes off a season in which the North Stars finished higher, gained more victories, lost less games, earned more points and allowed less goals than at any time since the club joined the National League.

What's more, the North Stars came through the off-season without the loss of a single key player. That means Blair can put an intact club in the hands of Coach Jack Gordon.

That doesn't mean that there won't be changes. Youngsters such as right winger Buster Harvey, defenseman Fred Barrett, left winger Jerry Byers and goaltenders Gilles Gilbert and Fern Rivard are certain to press for positions and will make their presence felt.

But the bulk of Minnesota's strength lies in the returning performers who charged to a second-place finish in the West last season.

Goalkeepers Cesare Maniago and Gump Worsley finished second in the Vezina Trophy race last year. The defensive corps of Ted Harris, Barry Gibbs, Doug Mohns, Tom Reid and Dennis O'Brien was among the soundest in the NHL. Right winger Bill Goldsworthy scored more than 30 goals for the third straight season and center Murray Oliver, right winger Lou Nanne and left winger Dean Prentice all scored 20 or more goals.

They're all back in company with the rest of the cast that is eager to take that giant, but difficult step.

WALTER BUSH, JR.
President and Governor

Recognition of the role Walter Bush, Jr., plays in the success of the North Stars came last spring when the Hockey News named the Minnesota president National Hockey League Executive of the Year. That signal honor was bestowed on Bush not only for his efforts during the 1971-72 season, but also for the manner in which he has headed the North Stars' organization during the team's five successful seasons in the National League. The 43-year-old attorney first played a leading role in the acquisition of a franchise for the Twin Cities, then took responsibility for the day-to-day operation of the organization. The success of the North Stars and of Metropolitan Sports Center is a tribute to the manner in which he has shouldered his duties. Bush is the first American appointed to the Governing Committee of the NHL Hall of Fame. He also serves on the NHL's Pension and International Committees and the Owner-Player Council, and is secretary of the U. S. Olympic Hockey Committee. When time permits, he enjoys a game of golf or a run down the ski slopes. Bush and his wife, Mary, live in the Twin Cities suburb of Edina. They are the parents of two sons and a daughter.

WREN BLAIR
General Manager

When the 1971-72 National Hockey League season was completed, a glance at the standings revealed that Minnesota ranked head and shoulders above any club that entered the NHL at the same time or after the North Stars. Indeed, the North Stars finished in front of a couple of establishment teams. Those stark figures say a great deal about the manner in which Wren Blair has managed Minnesota since he was hired in 1966. The 47-year-old native of Oshawa, Ont., has patiently but persistently constructed a team that can hold its head high in NHL competition. It wasn't easy in the early days nor is it easy now, but Blair has become accustomed to success in hockey management, a field where he has spent most of his adult life. His coaching credits include Canadian and world amateur titles and a berths in the Stanley Cup playoffs at Minnesota. As a scout, he spotted and signed to his first contract Bobby Orr. He pulled off one of his greatest coups as a general manager during the first half of 1972 when he became the first — and, as it turned out, the only general manager in the NHL to sign every player on his major-league roster. Blair and his wife, Elma, spend the summers in Haliburton, Ont. They are the parents of a boy and a girl.

JACK GORDON
Coach

Jack Gordon has coached only two seasons in the National Hockey League, but the soft-spoken native of Winnipeg has earned the respect of his peers in that span of time. Under Gordon's on-the-ice direction, the North Stars have: 1. Gained the only Stanley Cup playoff victories ever won by a post-1967 team over a pre-1967 team; 2. Tied the record for most victories in one season by a post-1967 team; 3. Placed higher than any North Star team in 1971-72. It seems that a good share of Gordon's 44 years were spent in preparation for the day when he took over the North Stars' coaching duties. The defense-minded skipper spent 17 years at Cleveland where he played, coached and managed for the American League team. That stay was broken by a four-year period when he served as assistant general manager in New York. Gordon's 14 years as a player were spent almost entirely in the American League where he was a skillful, high-scoring center for New Haven, Cincinnati and Cleveland. He did, however, perform in 36 games for New York. Gordon and his wife, Joyce, make their home in Edina. They are the parents of a son and a daughter.

JOHN MARIUCCI
Special Assistant to the General Manager

John Mariucci keeps moving during the winter. Not only from place to place. But also from job to job. General Manager Wren Blair calls on the 55-year-old native of Eveleth, Minn., for a multitude of duties, which have ranged from coaching to acting as road secretary. The field of greatest interest to the former University of Minnesota hockey and football star and is college scouting where he can draw on the expertise gained in 14 years of coaching the Gopher hockey team. A gifted after-dinner speaker, Mariucci played five seasons in the NHL during the day when an American-born performer was a rarity. He and his family live in Bloomington.

PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

HAROLD COTTON
Director of Field Operations

Harold (Baldy) Cotton, a National Leaguer of note during his playing days and a contemporary of such heroes as King Clancy, Busher Jackson and Ace Bailey, spends his time these days tracking down potential successors to those all-timers. The witty, 69-year-old former Boston employee has a fine eye for young talent as evidenced by the professional success of a number of Minnesota draft choices. General Manager Wren Blair also calls on Cotton for advice when he has a major trade in mind. Cotton and his wife live in Trent River, Ont., during the summer and in Toronto during hockey season.

TED O'CONNOR
Chief Scout

The man his friends call Okie is responsible for the data that goes into making Minnesota's decisions at the draft table when the National League meets each June. That means that he must have knowledge of the abilities of the 200 best junior performers in North America. That, in turn, means that O'Connor, who joined the North Stars in 1967, hits the road in September and spends little time at home until May. A former professional and amateur hockey player, O'Connor was a excellent baseball prospect in his younger days. He and his family make their home in Oshawa, Ont.

GERALD BLAIR
Assistant Chief Scout

Gerry Blair spends a great deal of time scouting the Ontario Hockey Association from where the bulk of National League prospects, but his field is not entirely limited to that section of North America. He also covers the other important junior leagues in Canada and from time to time the United States colleges. It is, however, the OHA where Blair concentrates his efforts. Those efforts have paid off with a large number of draft choices from that league who have made good in the Minnesota organization. The 36-year-old hockey executive is a summer camp director in the off-season. He and his family make their home in Oshawa, Ont.

THE CLEVELAND ORGANIZATION

JOHN MUCKLER
Barons' General Manager

John Muckler starts his third season as general manager at Cleveland. During those first two years, the Barons made the American League playoffs. That's no surprise. The 38-year-old former minor-league defenseman has a history of success behind him. He has directed clubs to titles and playoff positions in the American, Central and Eastern leagues. Muckler has coached or managed teams at Long Island in the EHL, at Memphis and Waterloo in the CHL, at Minnesota in the NHL and at Cleveland. He and his family make their home in Cleveland.

THE SAGINAW ORGANIZATION

DON PERRY
Gears' Coach

When you put a brand-new team on the ice, you look for a coach with a proven record of performance. That's what Saginaw landed in the person of 42-year-old Don Perry. The former American League performer never has coached a team that hasn't made the playoffs. Perry comes to Saginaw from New Haven where he managed and coached the Eastern League Blades from 1965 through 1972. Earlier, he served as player-coach at New Haven from 1955 to 1958. Perry also played professional hockey with Springfield and Syracuse. The native of Edmonton, Alta., and his family will make their home in Saginaw.

THE NEW HAVEN ORGANIZATION

PARKER MACDONALD
Nighthawks' General Manager-Coach

Although Minnesota is not operating an American Hockey League team in New Haven on a full-scale basis until 1973-74, General Manager-Coach Parker MacDonald will be present to guide the Nighthawks during the 1972-73 season. MacDonald is a 15-year veteran of the National League and a former linemate of Hall of Famer Gordie Howe. He played his last NHL season at Minnesota in 1968-69, then moved into coaching in the North Stars' system where he guided Waterloo and Cleveland to successive second place finishes in 1969-70 and 1970-71. Last year he prepared for his new role by working at the side of Minnesota General Manager Wren Blair. The 39-year-old MacDonald and his wife, Brenda, will make their home in New Haven.

FRED BARRETT

Height: 6'0" – Weight: 188 lbs.
Age: 22 (Jan. 26, 1950)
Born: Ottawa, Ont.
Home: Toronto, Ont.
Right Handed, Shoots Left

Fred Barrett has broken a bone in each of his first three seasons as a professional hockey player, but General Manager Wren Blair has a logical explanation of the fate of the young blueliner, "Fred," says Blair, "plays this game so hard that he's bound to pick up more injuries than the ordinary player." It's true. Barrett gives more than 100 per cent of himself every time he takes the ice. That quality and his knack of delivering smashing checks made him a success with the North Stars in 1970-71 and with Cleveland in 1971-72. A broken femur interupted his freshman season. Last year he was slowed by a broken collarbone . . . Barrett played junior hockey with the Toronto Marlboros and was the North Stars' No. 2 choice in the 1970 Amateur Draft . . . Attended Ottawa University last summer as part of the NHL's continuing education program . . . Fred and his wife, Lois, were married summer before last.

DON BLACKBURN

Height: 6'0" – Weight: 205 lbs.
Age: 34 (May 14, 1938)
Born: Kirkland Lake, Ont.
Home: Kingston, Ont.
Left Handed, Shoots Left

If Don Blackburn can repeat his performance last year for Providence in the American League, the North Stars are in for a treat at left wing. The tall, husky forward scored 99 points to lead all AHL performers. Of those points, 34 came on goals, so Blackburn obviously knows how to put the puck in the net. General Manager Wren Blair is familiar with Blackburn's talents. Don played for Blair at Kingston in the Eastern Professional League. So when Blackburn became available in last June's draft, Blair engineered a deal to acquire his services for Minnesota . . . Blackburn has seen NHL action with Boston, Philadelphia and the New York Rangers . . . Scored 42 goals one season at Kingston . . . Blackburn is the father of two sons, 8 and 3.

CHARLIE BURNS

Height: 5'11" – Weight: 177 lbs.
Age: 36 (Feb. 14, 1936)
Born: Detroit, Mich.
Home: Santa Rosa, Calif.
Right Handed, Shoots Left

Charlie Burns is the most-accomplished practical joker on the North Stars' squad, but the manner in which he does his job on the ice is no joke to Minnesota's foes. Burns plays all three forward positions – center, left wing and right wing – with equal facility. He's also Minnesota's ranking penalty killer in terms of skill and seniority. A tireless skater, he's one of the best defensive players in the National League. Put it all together and you have to decide that Wren Blair made a smart move when he drafted Burns from Pittsburgh in 1969 . . . Scored his 100th NHL goal last season . . . Rated by most observers as Minnesota's most effective player in the 1972 Stanley Cup playoffs . . . Played for Blair as an amateur when Whitby won the world championship . . . Charlie and his wife, Carol, are the parents of a girl, 9.

JERRY BYERS

Height: 5'11" – Weight: 170 lbs.
Age: 20 (March 29, 1952)
Born: Kentville, N.S.
Home: Kentville, N.S.
Right Handed, Shoots Left

The North Stars' organization has high hopes, based on facts and figures, that Jerry Byers, chosen No. 1 by Minnesota in the National Hockey League's Amateur Draft, will make the king-sized jump from junior hockey to the NHL in one season. The young man from Nova Scotia has the credentials to make it. He scored 41 goals and 60 assists last season to rank eighth in scoring in the Ontario Hockey Association, the sport's premiere junior league. Minnesota's turn in the draft was 12th, but the North Stars' scouting staff had Byers rated several places above that. He is one of several fine young prospects from Canada's Maritime provinces to join Minnesota in recent years. Others include forwards Danny Grant and Buster Harvey . . . His father has played and coached hockey and the rest of his family is especially active in swimming . . . Has played both center and left wing . . . Byers is not married.

Born: Mont-Louis, Que.
Home: Burnsville, Minn.

When you discuss outstanding centers in the National Hockey League, the name of Jude Drouin is bound to enter into the conversation. In two brief years the slender forward has progressed from untested rookie to genuine star. While Drouin has a hard, accurate shot, his forte is playmaking. Drouin holds the NHL record for most assists by a rookie in one season, 52 in 1970-71, and, despite missing 15 games last season, finished third in assists by West Division centers with 43. Bill Goldsworthy credits Drouin for helping the right winger to successive 30-goal-or-better seasons . . . Five of Drouin's 13 goals last year were game winners . . . The former rookie of the year and most valuable player in the American League in 1969-70 came to Minnesota from Montreal in exchange for Bill Collins in a 1970 deal engineered by General Manager Wren Blair . . . One of a family of 10 . . . Instructs in the North Stars' hockey school . . . Jude and his wife, Deborah, are the parents of a son, 2.

Most-improved player for Minnesota in 1971-72? Defenseman Barry Gibbs. You won't get much argument on that point. Gibbs was especially determined when he reported to training camp last fall and it paid off when he was voted the Tom Dill Trophy awarded to the team's most valuable defenseman at the conclusion of last season. Paired with Captain Ted Harris on defense, Gibbs' greatest improvement has been in puck carrying. Always tough around his net, he is a real threat when he moves the puck up the ice. Gibbs led Minnesota in penalties for the third successive season, but his 128 minutes were far from the team record of 182 he set in 1969-70 . . . Selected as the North Stars' No. 1 rookie in 1969-70 . . . An instructor in the North Stars' hockey school during the off-season . . . Came to Minnesota as part of a trade with Boston in 1969 . . . Barrie and his wife, Sherron, are the parents of two boys, 3 and 1.

Height: 6'0" – Weight: 173 lbs.
Age: 23 (March 21, 1949)
Born: St. Esprit, Que.
Home: Quebec City, Que.

Ever since Gilles Gilbert made a remarkable entrance into the National Hockey League with back-to-back victories over Montreal and Chicago in 1970, eventual stardom in the NHL has been predicted for the lean, swift-gloved youngster. This might be the year that the prediction comes true. Breaking into the North Stars' goalkeeping crew is not any easy task, but Gilbert is determined to make the effort. He played most of last season for the North Stars' American League farm team in Cleveland, but performed four times in the Minnesota nets and emerged with a creditable 3.02 average . . . The North Stars' No. 3 draft choice in 1969, he played junior hockey in London, Ont. . . . Scored his very first NHL victory in the Montreal Forum while his family looked on . . . Plays shortstop on a semipro baseball team in the summer and is part-owner of a night spot in Quebec City . . . Gilbert is one of the unmarried players on the Minnesota roster.

BILL (GOLDY) GOLDSWORTHY

Height: 6'1" – Weight: 197 lbs.
Age: 28 (Aug. 24, 1944)
Born: Kitchener, Ont.
Home: Bloomington, Minn.

When you score 30 or more goals in each of the last three NHL seasons, you're doing something right. That's what Bill Goldsworthy has done and it has earned him a ranking as one of the finest right wingers in the league. The big winger with the booming shot has been named to three successive Sporting News West Division All-Star teams, was picked on the Hockey News All-West team last season and has played in two NHL All-Star games. One of the two North Stars left from the 1967 Expansion Draft, Goldy led Minnesota not only in goals but also in points last season. His success is based on powerful skating and one of the heaviest shots in the NHL...Led the 1971-72 North Stars in game-winning goals with eight, first goals of game with eight, proximate goals with five and shots with 295 ... The only North Star ever to score four goals in one game and has five career hat tricks ... Bill and his wife, June, are the parents of a girl, 4, and a boy, 1 ... Chosen to the Team Canada team that played Russia.

Age: 26 (Feb. 21, 1946)
Born: Fredericton, N.B.

The man his teammates call Tuna – a reference to his Maritime background – won the Calder Trophy award to the National Hockey League's rookie of the year during his first season as a professional. Over the next three years, Danny Grant has matured into a polished NHL forward. Once known mostly for his offensive ability, he has become a solid, two-way performer, yet has averaged 28.8 goals per season in his four full years in the league. Grant's shot is one of the hardest in the league, which makes him particularly effective on the power play where he scored one-third of his 18 goals last season . . . He has missed only one game in four seasons as a North Star, making him the most durable player ever to wear a Minnesota sweater . . . Traded by Montreal to Minnesota in 1968 . . . Operates his own hockey school in New Brunswick during the summer . . . Danny and his wife, Linda, are the parents of a girl, 2, and a boy, 1.

Height: 6'2" – Weight: 180 lbs.
Age: 36 (July 18, 1936)
Born: Winnipeg, Man.
Home: Bloomington, Minn.
Right Handed, Shoots Left

Ted Harris, the North Stars' captain and Big C to his teammates, is not only a steady, dependable defenseman, but also a team leader in every sense. On and off the ice he is responsible in large part for the remarkable spirit shown by the North Stars during the last two seasons. An accomplished fighter on skates – he's one of the best two or three at that trade in the NHL – he is equally talented in the North Stars' end of the ice where he clears the opposition from in front of the net and makes life easier for Minnesota's goalkeepers . . . Played in his second successive All-Star game last season . . . Spent six full seasons at Montreal before he was acquired by Minnesota in 1970 . . . An ardent fisherman during the summer . . . Ted and his wife, Maureen, are the parents of two boys, 13 and 8, and a girl, 7.

FRED (BUSTER) HARVEY

Age: 22 (April 2, 1950)
Born: Fredericton, N.B.
Home: Fredericton, N.B.

Buster Harvey's showing in the American League last season may mean that the husky youngster from New Brunswick is back in the National League to stay. Harvey spent all of his first professional season with the North Stars, but was sent out to Cleveland for seasoning last year. Some seasoning. Some year. Harvey scored 41 goals and 54 assists for 95 points, only three less than AHL scoring champ Don Blackburn, who also is bidding for a position with Minnesota. Harvey does his job with a minimum of fuss, patrolling his wing up and back in a textbook manner that leaves him in position offensively and defensively . . . Called up by the North Stars for one playoff game last year . . . No. 1 Amateur Draft choice of Minnesota in 1970 . . . Played junior hockey for Hamilton of the Ontario Hockey Association . . . Named second-team right wing on the American League all-star team last season . . . One of the unmarried players on the Minnesota roster.

DENNIS HEXTALL

Height: 6'0" – Weight: 176 lbs.
Age: 29 (April 17, 1943)
Born: Winnipeg, Man.
Home: Oakland, Calif.
Right Handed, Shoots Left

A full season from Dennis Hextall at full strength will go a long way toward boosting the North Stars in the NHL standings. Minnesota had high hopes for the man his teammates call Hex last season, but knee surgery kept him on the sidelines for more than half the season. The year before he was traded to Minnesota in 1971, Hextall led California in scoring and everyone in the league but Chicago's Keith Magnuson in penalty minutes. His knee was fit by the end of last season and Minnesota is looking forward to a return to his 1970-71 form by the hard-bitten forward who neither asks nor gives quarter to his foes . . . Hextall's father, Bryan, Sr., is a former Ranger great and a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame. His brother, Bryan, Jr., plays for Pittsburgh . . . Played college hockey at North Dakota University . . . Dennis is not married.

CESARE MANIAGO (mahn-ee-AH-go)

Height: 6'3" – Weight: 195 lbs.
Age: 33 (Jan. 13, 1939)
Born: Trail, B.C.
Home: Burnaby, B.C.
Right Handed, Shoots Right

The taller half of Minnesota's Odd Couple in goal, Cesare Maniago recorded his best goals-against average as a National Leaguer last season when he rang up a 2.64 and combined with Gump Worsley to finish second in the NHL's Vezina Trophy race. He also became a 20-game winner for the first time. Maniago seems to work his best when he plays between 40 and 45 games and, playing in combination with Worsley, has been able to do this during the past two seasons. A somewhat unorthodox goalie, he uses his long legs to great advantage while playing his position . . . Cesare and his wife, Mavis, are the parents of three girls, 7, 5, and 2.

DOUG MOHNS (moanz)

Height: 6'0" – Weight: 187 lbs.
Age: 38 (Dec. 13, 1933)
Born: Capreol, Ont.
Home: Braintree, Mass.
Right Handed, Shoots Left

It has been 20 years since Doug Mohns broke into the National Hockey League as a teen-ager who scored 13 goals for Boston. If anything, Mohns is playing better hockey now than at any time during those two decades. The swift defenseman with the deceptively smooth skating stride played in the NHL All-Star game for the first time last season and bulwarked a Minnesota blueline corps that was acclaimed as one of the best in the league. Mohn's strongest points are his ability to move the puck from his zone with great speed and intelligence and his smart point play in power-play situations . . . A member of the Scooter Line in Chicago, he can play left wing if the situation demands it . . .

LOU NANNE (Nanny)

Height: 6'0" – Weight: 187 lbs.
Age: 31 (June 2, 1941)
Born: Sault Ste. Marie, Ont.
Home: Edina, Minn.
Right Handed, Shoots Right

Lou Nanne spent a full season at right wing last year. The results were splendid, for Nanne and for the North Stars. The convert from defense rang up his first 20-goal-or-better season in the NHL, collected his first NHL hat trick (on Jan. 27 in Montreal) and finished fourth in Minnesota scoring. His hard work in the corners helped make the line of center Murray Oliver, left winger Dean Prentice and Nanne the highest-scoring threesome on the Minnesota club. Nanne's greatest asset at forward is his strength in the corners and along the boards. He often draws two men to him, then makes the play to an open linemate . . . The naturalized U.S. citizen was captain and an All-American at the University of Minnesota and went on to captain the 1968 U.S. Winter Olympics team . . . Still takes a few shifts on defense . . . He and his wife, Francine, are the parents of a girl, 8, twin boys, 6, and another boy, 4.

BOB NEVIN

Height: 6'0" – Weight: 193 lbs.
Age: 34 (March 18, 1938)
Born: South Porcupine, Ont.
Home: Toronto, Ont.

Deadeye Bob Nevin hopes to translate his sharp shooting eye into more goals this season. Last year the smooth-skating right winger connected on 15.6 per cent of the shots he took, best of all players who performed for the North Stars. But Nevin dropped below the average of 24.5 goals he had posted over the last half dozen years and hopes to return to that level or better this season. One of the best defensive players in the National League, Nevin often draws the assignment of checking the opposition's No. 1 scorer . . . The 13-year NHL veteran was traded by New York to Minnesota in 1971 after eight years with the Rangers .

DENNIS O'BRIEN

Height: 6'0" – Weight: 190 lbs.
Age: 23 (June 10, 1949)
Born: Port Hope, Ont.
Home: Port Hope, Ont.
Right Handed, Shoots Left

The general of Obie's Army came of age as a National Leaguer last year during his first full season in the NHL. Although Dennis O'Brien operated as the fifth defenseman or swing man on the North Stars' blueline corps, the hard-hitting young man grew in wisdom and skill during each shift on the ice. The former Central League penalty record holder (331 minutes in 1969-70) retained his reputation as one of the toughest operators in the NHL, but managed to avoid infractions that hurt his team. A fearless rusher with the puck, O'Brien also has gained considerable effectiveness in his own end of the rink . . . Led both the Central League and the Ontario Hockey Association in penalty minutes . . . The youngest member of last year's Minnesota team . . . Comes from a family of nine, five brothers and three sisters . . . A hockey school instructor in the summer . . . Minnesota's third choice in the 1969 Amateur Draft . . . O'Brien's wife is named Janice.

MURRAY OLIVER

Height: 5'9" – Weight: 178 lbs.
Age 35 (Nov. 14, 1937)
Born: Hamilton, Ont.
Home: Port Credit, Ont.
Right Handed, Shoots Left

Murray Oliver comes off the best goalscoring year he's ever had in his 14 years in the National Hockey League. Oliver's 27-goal total not only was a personal high, but also ranked third among all centers in the West Division. Equally important is the fact that Oliver's wingers, Lou Nanne and Dean Prentice hit the 20-goal mark. Oliver is talented at moving the puck from his zone, then can make a play to either wing with equal facility. He scores most of his goals from the slot some 15 to 20 feet from the goal... His nickname is Muzz... Attended two summer school sessions at Boston University where he studied business administration... Signed to his first professional contract by the late Jack Adams... The father of Oliver's wife, Helen, is a member of the Providence hockey hall of fame... The Olivers are the parents of a boy, 9, and a girl, 5.

JEAN PAUL (J.P.) PARISE)pah-REE-see)

Height: 5'9" – Weight: 175 lbs.
Age: 30 (Dec. 11, 1941)
Born: Smooth Rock Falls, Ont.
Home: Bloomington, Minn.
Right Handed, Shoots Left

The National Hockey League's statistical service ranks goals and points as "important" based on their bearing on the outcome of games. J.P. Parise led the North Stars in percentage of both important goals and important points last season. Of his 19 goals, 84.2 per cent were important. Of his 37 points, 78.3 per cent were important. That means that more often than not, the hard-bitten cornerman was the right man in the right place. The distinction is not new to Parise. This is the second time he's led the team in both departments . . . Holds the team record of 72 points in one season . . . Ranks third among the North Stars in seniority . . . Works as an instructor in the North Stars' hockey school during the summer . . . Has played in one National League All-Star game . . . Came to the North Stars in December of 1967 as part of a seven-player trade with Rochester . . . J.P. and his wife, Marguerite, are the parents of a girl, 6, and a boy, 3 . . . A member of Team Canada.

Height: 5'11" – Weight: 180 lbs.
Age: 40 (Oct. 5, 1932)
Born: Schumacher, Ont.
Home: Guelph, Ont.
Right Handed, Shoots Left

Dean Prentice's retirement was extremely brief. For that, the North Stars are happy. The veteran of 20 years in the NHL had decided to retire at the end of last season, but changed his mind by mid-summer. "Anyone who can score 20 goals in the NHL is not ready to quit," claims General Manager Wren Blair, who purchased Prentice from Pittsburgh before last season and saw him become one of the best buys of the 1971-72 season. Prentice, an accomplished goalscorer – he is seventh among active NHL players – teamed with center Murray Oliver and right winger Lou Nanne to form the North Stars' highest-scoring line.

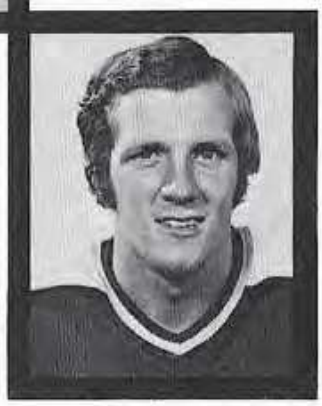
NORTHLAND



TOM REID

Height: 6'1" – Weight: 200 lbs.
Age: 26 (June 24, 1946)
Born: Fort Erie, Ont.
Home: Fort Erie, Ont.
Right Handed, Shoots Left

Tom Reid wrote his name in Minnesota's record book last season when he became the first North Star ever to score on a penalty shot in a regular-season game. But that was far from the total of the accomplishments of the five-year professional. Although Reid ended the season with six goals, twice as many as he's ever scored in a season, his most important contribution to the North Stars was in the defensive department. Rugged in front of the net, he also is adept at moving the puck from his team's zone. General Manager Wren Blair, who obtained Reid in a 1969 trade with Chicago, ranks him as one of the best young defensemen in the game . . . Works in the Fort Erie recreation department during the off-season . . . Plays his "off" or right side on defense . . . His brother, Doug, played in the International and Eastern leagues . . . Tom's wife is named Susan.

JIM McELMURY

(mac-ELL-murray)

Height: 6-0; Weight: 190 lbs.
Age: 23 (Oct. 3, 1949)
Born: St. Paul, Minn.
Home: Roseville, Minn.

One of the stars of the 1972 silver-medal winning United States Olympic hockey team, Jim McElmury broke into professional hockey with a bang last season. He played 15 games late in the season at Cleveland and, in the words of Coach John Muckler, "improved at such a rapid rate that he was one of our very best defensemen by season's end. If he continues this improvement, he's certain to become a National Leaguer." McElmury is tall and husky enough to be a hard hitter and handles the puck well ... McElmury played at Kellogg High School in the St. Paul suburb of Roseville and went on the Bemidji State College where he played hockey and majored in health and physical education .... Played goal when he was in junior high, but switched to defense in high school ... Works as a hockey school instructor during the off-season ... McElmury is not married.

It would take far more space than is available here to chronicle all the feats of Gump Worsley during the 23 years he has played professional hockey. But it's fair to say that the stocky goaltender will be a strong candidate for the Hall of Fame if and when he ever decides to retire. The way Worsley has been playing since he arrived at Minnesota via purchase from Montreal in 1970 leads one to believe that the day of retirement never will arrive. Last season Worsley recorded his lowest goals-against average since 1967-68, teamed with Cesare Maniago to finish second in the Vezina Trophy race and was named to the West All-Star team. Not bad for a fellow who broke in with St. Paul of the old United States League in 1950 . . . The North Stars' player representative . . . Two-time winner of the Vezina Trophy . . . One of the very few goalies in all of hockey who goes unmasked . . . Gump and his wife, Doreen, are the parents of three sons and a daughter.

THE NORTH STARS' TRAINERS

Trainer
STAN WAYLETT

Assistant Trainer
DICK ROSE

Once again this season the team of head trainer Stan Waylett and assistant trainer Dick Rose will be responsible for the physical and equipment needs of the North Stars.

Both Waylett and Rose are capable of handling both sides of the operation, but, by and large, Waylett will handle the physical problems of the North Stars while Rose will be responsible for the equipment used by the team.

Waylett has been with the North Stars since the team joined the National Hockey League in 1967. This is the 34th year he has been active in his profession. The 59-year-old trainer has spent 22 of those years in association with General Manager Wren Blair. Last season he was trainer for the West team in the 1972 NHL All-Star game.

The 33-year-old Rose, a former St. Paul athlete, is starting his third season with the North Stars. He served as trainer for the United States Olympic and National hockey teams before joining Minnesota's staff. Rose was trainer for the East team in the 1972 All-Star game.

NORTH STARS' RADIO and TV TEAMS

HAL KELLY

AL SHAVER

JOE BOYLE

A tested team of broadcasters returns to man the microphones for television and radio broadcasts of the North Stars' 1972-73 National Hockey League games.

For the sixth straight season Al Shaver will broadcast every home and away game on WCCO-Radio (830). The genial ex-Canadian has worked more games in that span than any other radio, television or newspaper personage.

Play-by-play experts Hal Kelly and Joe Boyle will once again grace the scene when WTCN-TV (Channel 11) carries 27 away games and three home games during this season's schedule.
